The WARRIOR

1956

New Everett Southern Joint High School

Alma Mater

Everett High, so true,
How we all love you!
And we're proud to say,
"You belong to us alway."
Everett High, we call
Greatest school of all,
Victory or defeat,
We'll all repeat
Our praise for Alma Mater,
Everett High.

Foreword

The class of 1956 is proud to present this twentieth volume of the Warrior.

We feel that the theme "moving and getting settled" is appropriate for this book, the first to be published since our tribes moved to our new reservation. We have tried to portray the expanded activity and the modern facilities available for us and for all the tribes following us. Getting settled in our new tepees, becoming used to new regulations, learning so many new faces—these were experiences which we shall never forget. These were the experiences which we all shared—the older and the younger tribes—and which welded us into one strong nation.

Dedication

We, the Class of 1956, dedicate this volume of the Warrior to Miller C. Hood.

Mr. Hood has been supervising principal of our schools since 1948. He has done much to bring the dream of having a new and larger school building to a reality. Because of the tireless efforts and long hours he put forth to make this building possible, we, the Class of 1956, think he is worthy of this dedication.

Chatting with students and Principal Mack

A Dreamer's Dream

One day recently, while flying to California, I was very much surprised to see that two of my former classmates, WANDA HOWSARE and LOIS ROBINETTE, were hostesses on the plane. Looking around, I saw RONALD McFARLAND and DAVID DODGE, who had retired at the ripe old age of 17. I began to daydream, and I could just see how Everett must look now, ten years after graduation.

At one edge of the city is a big truck terminal owned by KENNY COLLINS. Kenny's chief mechanic is DARREL CHAMBERLAIN, and one of his drivers is ERNEST GRUBB. Serving him as secretaries are BETTY McCUNE, SHIRLEY DISHONG, and PLEASANT CRAWFORD. Across the road from this is the airport, owned by GARY FOOR and DANIEL BENNETT.

The huge automobile factory out on Clear Ridge is owned by JAMES CALHOUN, famous automotive engineer. Jim's private secretary, WANDA CLINGERMAN, and his stenographer, DOROTHY COOPER, are talking to JIM HOOD and BILL MOUNTAIN, two other engineers who help manage the factory. The company's financial records have just been checked by RUSSELL LEAMER, certified public accountant. Also employed here are CLAIR HIXSON and RONALD WHISEL, graduates of Steven's Trade School.

A Dreamer's Dream

In town, MONTE STEED is just delivering the afternoon mail to the law office of EMIGDIO ESCOBAR. The mail is received by his secretary, WILMA SMITH.

On the corner several of the area's officials are discussing politics. Who's there? ELTON BEQUEATH (dogcatcher of Earlston), DONALD FLUKE (constable of Tatesville), and CHARLES STEACH (mayor of Riverside).

If you go into the Acme Store, which is now managed by DONALD FOOR, you can talk to the butcher, RONALD BULGER. Ronald is cutting meat for housewives GAIL BEAR, BEVERLY COOTE, DONNA COGAN, WANDA POTTS, and GERTRUDE SHOWALTER. In the store also is DONALD "PETE" PEPPE, star first baseman of the Brooklyn Dodgers, talking to RICHARD WISE, the air force pilot who recently flew a jet at 60,000 feet.

In the school we see that some former students are now teaching. In the men's lounge at lunchtime we see KENNETH BRUCK, history teacher, shop teacher RONALD "CHIEF" CLARK, and ALVIN MILLS, physical education teacher who has just led the Everett Warriors through their fifth unbeaten basketball season. HELEN MACK is teaching a group of eighth grade girls how to bake cookies in the home economics room, and BARBARA SHAFFER is head of the commercial department. Up at the elementary school we see art teacher CAROLYN McCORMICK, music instructor CAROL STIFFLER, NANCY BOWSER, LOIS PENNELL, MARLENE RITCHEY, and DELORES STRAW. MARCIA KING and HELEN MILLS serve the school district as nurses. We hear from Carolyn that SALLY LINGENFELTER is in Africa as a missionary. With her are LAURA MAE RITCHEY and MARY RITCHEY.

Picking up the phone to call the beauty salon operated by DOROTHY BOLLMAN and JUANETA RILEY, I recognize the voice that says "Number please" as that of MARTHA DIEHL or VERA TRAIL. While having your hair done, you talk to NANCY FOOR, MARY SIMPSON, DIANNE SLEIGHTER, and DAWN FISHER, who have just returned from a trip around the world. On the way out you stop to see HELEN ELLER, whose modeling school is in the same building.

Going up to RONALD GORDON'S gas station, we find mechanic WILLIAM WILLIAMS talking to CALVIN SHOEMAKER and VIRGIL MILLER, famous jet ace home on furlough.

If you travel south from Everett, you pass the mansion of millionaire RAY EMERY. Most of the land around Mattie, Clearville, and Artemas is now devoted to the cattle ranches of RICHARD FETTERS, TOM MORRAL, ALLEN JAY, JAMES BOTHEL, and DANIEL PERRIN. These five now have such large businesses that they employ as secretaries PATRICIA BENNETT, REGINA BODEN, NADINE BOLLMAN, PEARL CLINGERMAN, and DONNA BRIDGES.

Of course, everyone from the class of '56 is not in Everett now. SARAH KEMBERLING is working as a chemist in Delaware. MARYETHEL MILLER and IRMA SHIPLEY are in the W. A. C. EDWARD CONNER, NYLE COLLEDGE, and WILLIAM SMITH are in Germany with the Army. Marine Sgt. ROBERT ROLAND is stationed in California, and Airmen HAROLD ELBIN and LEONARD MORRIS are in Morocco.

That just about covers everyone. From the looks of things, I guess the members of the Class of 1956 have done all right for themselves.

Class History

Almost every one of us can clearly remember the fall of 1952 when we entered Everett Southern Joint High School as freshmen. At first everything seemed strange; but as time went on, we soon became accustomed to our newly found life.

When we became sophomores, we were more sure of ourselves, for we had established new friendships with students and teachers. We now felt as if we belonged to the group, and we did many things together.

As we started our junior year, we realized that we had completed the larger part of our high school career. During this year we purchased our class rings and produced the first of our class plays, "Home Sweet Homicide." In May we had the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom. The theme was "Neptune's Court." During this evening we realized that this was the last gathering with our old friends of the senior class and soon we would be graduating as they were doing now.

Finally we were seniors. Our goal was almost reached.

To date, many things have been done—many hours spent in study; pictures taken; name cards exchanged; class colors, flower, and motto chosen; measurements taken for caps and gowns; class dues paid; the class trip to Washington planned; and announcements ordered. But even while all the scurry and hustle was going on, we had time to produce our second class play, "Every Family Has One," and to set new records in magazine sales and Warrior and Parrot subscriptions.

Now as Baccalaureate and Commencement draw near, we—the first class to be graduated from the new school—sincerely hope that the underclassmen will do their best to uphold the standards of our pride and joy—
EVERETT SOUTHERN JOINT HIGH SCHOOL.

CLASS HISTORY

We are the juniors. As we reminisce, we have many pleasant memories of our struggle and achievements.

As freshmen, we were subjected to many changes which made us feel inferior and unsure. However, almost without our knowing it, we became oriented to these new rules. Some of us joined the band and chorus, while others participated in sports.

In 1954-55 we were sophomores, gradually becoming more and more a part of the school's activities. To acquire money, we sold sweat shirts and head scarfs and held a skating party.

We juniors have much to be proud of as we review this year. In December we presented "We Shook the Family Tree." Our class rings were ordered, and we awaited anxiously their arrival. We undertook another campaign to raise money, principally for the Junior-Senior Prom.

Now we are ready for the grand finale—our senior year. We have been educating ourselves for the field we wish to pursue, and at the end of 1957 we shall step out to use this knowledge. We are determined to make the coming year the best ever—full of good scholarship, clean sportsmanship, and fun.

—SUZANNE GIBSON
